I. LAW SCHOOLS SPONSORING THE CAMBRIDGE STUDY-ABROAD PROGRAM

(A) THE CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

The Chapman University School of Law is situated on the main university campus in Orange, California, some forty miles southeast of Los Angeles. The student body of approximately 550 is taught by a full-time faculty of more than 45, five of whom are former U.S. Supreme Court judicial clerks. The Law School offers five curriculum emphases: Advocacy & Dispute Resolution, Entertainment Law, Environmental & Land Use Law, International Law, and Taxation. Students may also opt for the joint JD/MBA or JD/MFA (Film & Television Producing) degree programs. Clinical opportunities include the Elder Law Clinic, Family Violence Clinic, U.S. Tax Court Clinic, Ninth Circuit Appellate Advocacy Clinic, the Entertainment Contracts Clinic, the AMVETS Military Personnel Law Clinic, and Constitutional Jurisprudence Clinic.

(B) CUMBERLAND SCHOOL OF LAW AT SAMFORD UNIVERSITY

Cumberland School of Law at Samford University is one of the oldest law schools in the United States. Cumberland was founded in 1847 and moved to Birmingham, Alabama in 1961. The Law School has become nationally recognized for its Advocacy program, Center for Biotechnology, Law and Ethics, and the use of technology in the classroom. The law faculty is composed of dedicated law teachers and scholars with rich experience gained from judicial clerkships, private practice, government service and corporate America. Cumberland is located in a thriving financial, legal and medical services center of Alabama. The Cumberland location offers students an opportunity to pursue a wide variety of academic, professional and social interests. Many students take advantage of the opportunity to broaden their perspectives through summer study-abroad programs and interaction with international attorneys and jurists who study on Samford University's campus in the Master of Comparative Law program. Cumberland prides itself as a place "where good people become exceptional lawyers," with emphasis on practical training for the practice of law.

(C) SOUTH TEXAS COLLEGE OF LAW

South Texas College of Law rests comfortably in the center of one of the nation's largest legal markets. Located in downtown Houston's thriving, global marketplace, South Texas provides students a rigorous legal curriculum to prepare them for a wide variety of professional paths. Qualified, motivated students become capable, practice-ready attorneys with the support of an outstanding legal faculty focused on preparing students to seize opportunities. South Texas is the oldest law school in Houston, with a diverse student body of 1,200 students, 25% of whom attend classes part-time.

II. PROGRAM LOCATION OF THE STUDY-ABROAD PROGRAM

Cambridge has a 2000 year history. During the first century, the Belgic tribes established the first settlement at the location now recognized as Cambridge. The Belgic settlement achieved strategic significance when the Romans arrived in AD 43. Roman soldiers were stationed at the location, a ford for crossing the River Cam, on the Roman Road connecting Colchester with Chester. Through the centuries the settlement grew from a village to a delightful town. A group of rebel scholars arrived in 1209, having left Oxford after that which applicable history describes as “violent quarrels” with Oxford residents. The first college, Peterhouse, was established in 1284. Sidney Sussex College, our study-abroad residential college and the Cambridge college attended by Oliver Cromwell, was founded in 1596. Sidney Sussex College was built on the site of a Franciscan friary. The contemporary location is in the center of the beautiful and historic city and is truly outstanding. There are 10 museums and galleries within walking distance of Sidney Sussex. Cambridge is truly an excellent location for a study-abroad program. We, the sponsoring law schools, are privileged to offer law students the opportunity to study in Cambridge, as have Milton, Marlowe, Coleridge, Wordsworth and Byron before them.

III. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Cumberland School of Law at Samford University, South Texas College of Law, and Chapman University School of Law will conduct the fifth annual study-abroad program at Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, England, June 27 – July 29, 2010. Cumberland has conducted study-abroad programs in England since 1991, first at the University of Kent in Canterbury, then Collingwood College, University of Durham, England, moving the program to Cambridge in 2006. South Texas College of Law and Chapman University School of Law co-sponsored the Durham program with Cumberland for several years. In 2009, the Cambridge program included five Cumberland JD students, four JD students from South Texas, and three JD students from Chapman. In addition to the JD students from the United States, eight Cumberland Master of Comparative Law students attended. Most M.C.L. students are from Brazil, though other countries may also be represented. The Cambridge location enhances the study-abroad experience for participating students. Sidney Sussex College is centrally located in Cambridge, convenient to many destinations of interest to students, including transportation by bus and train.

Arriving students and faculty will attend a reception on the evening of June 27, at 6:30 P.M. The reception will include an orientation for students and faculty concerning our residential college and the Cambridge area. Classes will be conducted Monday through Thursday of the first week of the program for the one-hour course treating the English Legal System and the European Union. The examination for this course will be conducted on Friday morning, July 2, 2010. The normal class schedule, offering classes Monday through Friday, will vary during the second and third week of classes. During the second week of classes there will be no classes on Friday, July 9, to provide a three-day weekend for travel or study. The third week of classes is planned to accommodate a field trip to the Royal Courts of Justice, lunch at the Middle Temple Inn of Court and a trip to Parliament following lunch. The program will provide bus transportation to and from London for our visit.

The last day of classes will occur on July 26 and final examinations will be conducted on July 27 and July 28 for courses other than the first-week one-hour course. Students, other than those who make individual arrangements with the program director, should plan to arrive at Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, on Sunday, June 27 and depart prior to 9:30 A.M. on Thursday, July 29. The program cannot furnish lodging either before June 27 or following our scheduled departure date. A closing dinner will be offered for students and faculty on Saturday evening, July 24. A summary calendar of events and class schedule will be found following the program application at the end of this brochure.

Students may anticipate examinations for each course comparable to law exams administered in American Bar Association approved law schools in the United States. The professor responsible for each of the courses offered will both write and grade the applicable examination. The 2010 Cambridge program will be limited to a maximum of 30 students if additional lodging cannot be arranged. Early registration is encouraged.

IV. ADMISSION CRITERIA

Program participation is limited to law students in good standing at an American Bar Association approved law school, graduates of approved law schools in their country of origin or residence, or members of the Bar. Samford University, South Texas College of Law and Chapman University are Equal Opportunity Institutions and welcome applications for employment and educational programs from all individuals, regardless of race, color, sex, disability, national or ethnic origin.

V. APPLICATION PROCEDURES

All applications for admission must be accompanied by a $50 application fee which is non-refundable unless the application is rejected due to full enrollment, lack of sufficient student interest, or domestic and/or international instability which is relevant to the program. Deadline for submitting applications is March 1, 2010. Late applications may be arranged with the program director if space allows. The program director recognizes that financial aid for legal studies may not be available until either late May or early June; hence, a deferred time-frame for payment, other than the application deposit, is satisfactory if the student has preregistered and informed the program director of an acceptable payment schedule. Applications should be directed to Cumberland's Director of International Studies, Professor Michael D. Floyd, at the address provided on the application form. South Texas College of Law students should direct their applications for the Cambridge program to Assistant Dean Wanda Morrow at South Texas College of Law.

VI. ACADEMIC CREDIT

Upon satisfactory completion of the required course work, Samford University will provide transcript information to the other law schools whose JD students participate in the program. Application of these credits will be governed by the policies of each student's home school. Each student should check with his or her home school in advance of the program to determine whether and how these credits will be applied toward the JD degree. In particular, any student hoping to use these credits to graduate early should carefully check the requirements of his or her home school.

VII. REFUNDS, CANCELLATION OR TERMINATION OF PROGRAMS AND CONSULAR INFORMATION SHEETS

Registered students who withdraw on or before May 3, 2010, will receive a refund of all monies prepaid other than the non-refundable application fee. Students withdrawing after May 3, 2010, and before June 27, will receive a fifty-percent refund of monies prepaid other than the application fee. Students withdrawing on or after June 27 will receive no refunds.

In the event of cancellation of the program for lack of student interest, additional immigration issues, or University concern regarding student safety, the University will utilize maximum effort to refund all monies prepaid, including the application fee, within twenty (20) days after the date of cancellation. The program director will use his best efforts to make arrangements for each student enrolled to attend a similar program, if the student so desires, if cancellation occurs after a deposit has been paid. Registered students will be advised of any such program cancellation by e-mail at their address on the application form and first class mail to their home address as indicated on their application for the program.

Notwithstanding any information concerning program cancellation and refund policy to the contrary, if the U.S. State Department determines that the country and area of the country in which the program will be conducted is an "area of instability," students will be permitted to withdraw from the program upon learning that the site has been declared to be such. Students withdrawing under such circumstances shall be refunded fees paid except for room and board payments utilized prior to the date the site was declared an "area of instability." The Consular Information Sheet for England, issued by the U.S. Department of State, will be furnished to all students upon registration. An updated Consular Information Sheet will be provided to all registered students if, either prior to the program beginning or subsequent thereto, the program location is determined to be an "area of instability."

If changes occur in the course offerings for which the student has registered or other fundamental aspects of the program, the registered student will be advised by e-mail and given an opportunity to obtain a full refund of all fees paid.

VIII. FINANCIAL MATTERS

(A) Administration, Housing and Meals – ($4,400.00)

Students will be housed in Sidney Sussex College. Breakfast and lunch are included in the housing and meal allowance for registered students each class day of the program. Breakfast will be provided each weekend.

Lodging will be provided from June 27 and departure from Cambridge must occur prior to 9:30 A.M. on July 29. Evening meals may be purchased in one of the many local restaurants convenient to the lodging. The evening meal will not, other than the closing dinner on Saturday, July 24, be provided by the study-abroad program.

(B) Tuition (Five Hours) – ($3,500.00)

This tuition cost is a flat rate of $3,500.00 for any hours undertaken. The maximum number of hours allowable pursuant to American Bar Association regulations for a program of this duration is five hours. The student will, therefore, be allowed to register for the one-hour course and two of the four two-hour courses offered. The payment schedule below is based upon the tuition plus the administration, housing and meal fees.

(C) PAYMENT SCHEDULE

$ 50.00	-	application fee, payable with application
$ 3,950.00	-	payable on or before March 31, 2010
$ 3,950.00	-	payable on or before April 30, 2010
$ 7,950.00	-	Total cost of Administration, Housing, Meals furnished and Tuition

Special arrangements for students participating in loan programs may be made by informing the program director of the date when the loan proceeds will be available after student registration is completed.

Loans are available for students participating in this study-abroad program. Students interested in obtaining loans for the program should contact the Director of Financial Aid at the law school they are attending. The approved budget for financial aid for this program for Samford University students, including all anticipated required travel and miscellaneous expense is $11,750.00. An itemized copy of the financial aid budget approved by Samford University Financial Aid is available on request from the Cumberland Director of International Studies at law\_intl@samford.edu

IX. PROGRAM LODGING AND ON-SITE ADMINISTRATION

This study-abroad program will be conducted at Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, England. Cambridge is located in beautiful central England, a convenient location from which to travel and an ideal location for summer study. The accommodations at Sidney Sussex are modern single en-suite bedrooms, i.e., a single bedroom with private bath, with linens and towels furnished. In-room internet connections are furnished. Classes will be held in a convenient classroom within the residential college. During the 2010 program, Professor Michael D. Floyd will serve as the on-site director. The director will be available for student consultations each class day. The director will also maintain a cell phone for emergency student contact every day, including weekends.

X. PASSPORTS AND VISAS

Passports are required for a trip to England. Participating students should obtain their passports at their earliest convenience. Passports may be obtained through contact with the nearest State Department Office or United States Post Office. The UK has recently imposed new and stricter immigration requirements. The program director will provide each student traveling to England a letter explaining the nature of the requirements as they become available. It will be the responsibility of each participant to ensure compliance with the regulations once informed of the process and requirements. Obtaining passports and visas is the student's responsibility.

XI. TRANSPORTATION

Each student participating in the program will be responsible for arranging their transportation to and from England. Airlines provide a variety of reduced fare plans and early booking can create substantial savings. Summer flights to Europe are filled quickly; hence early travel arrangements should be made. One will typically fly into either Heathrow Airport or Gatwick Airport for the flight from the United States to London. Refer to the following websites for information relating to the two airports and information concerning travel from the airports into London.

www.heathrowairport.com or www.heathrow.co.uk

www.heathrowexpress.com

www.gatwickairport.com or www.gatwick-airport-guide.co.uk

www.gatwickexpress

Students should pay careful attention to their air carriers' baggage allowances. Some airports also impose stricter carry-on luggage limitations than the airlines. Exceeding these limits can impose substantial extra charges.

Information concerning the London Subway System may be obtained from www.tfl.gov.uk/tube.

Cambridge is about 55 miles north of London. One can take the train to Cambridge from either London's Kings Cross Station or Liverpool Station. The train ride typically takes 45 minutes and currently costs approximately 20.00 to 30.00 pounds. Trains generally depart about every 30 minutes from Kings Cross and 20 minutes from Liverpool Street. The websites for train information are:

www.nationalrail.co.uk

www.britrail.com

www.raileurope.com

BritRail passes may be a convenient, less expensive way to travel in England. Students should obtain a BritRail pass online before departing the U.S. The reduced rate BritRail pass will not be available in the U.K.

The Cambridge Train Station is south of the city center, slightly more than one mile from Sidney Sussex College. The walk to the city center takes about 20 minutes. There are taxi stands at the train station and a bus leaves for the city center every 15 minutes or so. Our residential college, Sidney Sussex College, is delightfully located in the city center. Further information concerning Sidney Sussex College may be found at www.sid.cam.ac.uk

Coach service to Cambridge is also available from London's Victoria Coach Station, Gatwick airport, and Heathrow airport with coaches departing every 1-2 hours or so. If you decide to take the bus from London to Cambridge, be sure to check the schedule carefully. Schedules, trip duration, and fares can vary widely at different times of day. Refer to the website www.nationalexpress.com for bus schedules and fares. The Cambridge Bus Station is centrally located in Cambridge, approximately 6/10 of a mile from Sidney Sussex College.

Stansted Airport (STN) is located 25 miles from Cambridge. This airport is great for travel throughout the UK and Ireland as well as continental Europe. Refer to the website www.stanstedairport.com for additional information about the airport and flights that are available. For information concerning the Stansted Express Train, see www.stanstedexpress.com.

XII. MATERIALS FOR COURSE OF STUDY

Information concerning casebook materials for courses offered will be available in sufficient time to allow some preparation by students prior to the summer semester. Individual students who wish to have course materials for early preparation should request the necessary information from the program director.

XIII. RESPONSIBILITY AND MODIFICATIONS

The sponsoring law schools will not be responsible for personal injury, medical expenses, loss or damage to personal property, or changes in immigration requirements. Students must have medical insurance coverage which applies to foreign travel covering sickness and accidental injury, medical evacuation and repatriation. Proof of the requisite insurance must be submitted to the program director prior to May 17, 2010. If deemed desirable, students may also wish to purchase insurance covering loss or damage to personal property and trip cancellation. The sponsoring schools reserve the right to change any aspect of the program which circumstances make necessary or desirable. Participants will be notified promptly of material changes or cancellation of the program.

XIV. FACULTY AND COURSES TO BE OFFERED (SUBJECT TO REVISION)

The English Legal System and European Union: A Comparative Overview (1 hr.) Adjunct Professor Adrian Jenkala, Barrister

This course explores the English Legal System, the role of the judiciary, and the current interface of the English system with the European Union. The course offers students a unique opportunity to understand the practical and academic aspects of the emerging constitutional basis for the European Union and its effects on the English system of justice.

Professor Jenkala is a graduate of London University (B.S. and B. of Laws), University of Westminster (Diploma in Law), Inns of Court School of Law (Bar Finals) and a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. He has over twenty years experience as Barrister with advocacy rights in all of the courts of England and the European Court of Justice.

European Union Law (2 hours) Adjunct Professor Adrian Jenkala, Barrister

This course is designed to further students' understanding of the European Union (EU) and its legal system. Topics include a review of the essential history and institutions; comparisons to other similar organizations (NAFTA, MERCOSUR, the African Union, ASEAN, and the WTO); the relationship between the law of the European Community and the law of its member states; the four freedoms; and significant substantive initiatives including the Lisbon Treaty.

International Criminal Law (2 hours) Assistant Professor Eric Jensen, Fordham University School of Law

This course reviews the history of international criminal law, emphasizing the Nuremberg Tribunals. It focuses on the modern era of international criminal law, considering what makes a tribunal "international." It explores the composition of modern tribunals, from internationalized domestic tribunals such as Iraq, to those established by the Security Council (the ICTY and ICTR). The course concludes with national applications of international criminal law, including discussions of issues such as jurisdiction and transfer.

Professor Jensen is a graduate of Brigham Young University (B.A., International Relations), University of Notre Dame (J.D.), The Judge Advocate General's School (LL.M., Military Law), and Yale Law School (LL.M.). He has served as Prosecutor in Ft. Richardson, Alaska; Legal Advisor for both the U.S. and U.N. Forces; Associate Professor of Law at The Judge Advocate General's School; and Chief of International Law at the Office of The Judge Advocate General, U.S. Army. He currently serves as Visiting Assistant Professor at Fordham University School of Law.

Comparative Insolvency Law (2 hours) Professor Michael D. Floyd, Samford University, Cumberland School of Law

This course will compare and contrast the approaches taken to dealing with insolvent debtors in the US and other countries, with a particular emphasis on Brazil, the EU, and the largest EU Member States. Topics will include the differing concerns in consumer and business cases, the differences between liquidation and reorganization, challenges inherent in bankruptcies involving assets and entities in multiple states, and the American Law Institute's project, “Transnational Insolvency: Principles of Cooperation.” No prior study of bankruptcy law is required.

Professor Floyd is a graduate of Princeton University (A.B., magna cum laude, economics), New York University (M.S., with distinction, accounting), Emory University School of Law (J.D., with distinction, Robert W. Woodruff Fellow, Order of the Coif). He served as a Judicial Clerk for Judge James C. Hill, United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, 1987-1988 before entering private practice with Sutherland, Asbill & Brennan, Atlanta, Ga., 1988-1991. He joined the Cumberland faculty in 1991. Professor Floyd is a Certified Public Accountant and former banking executive.

New Media in the International Legal Regime (2 hours) Professor Kathy Heller, Chapman University School of Law

This course will analyze the influence of existing laws and treaties on the growth of new media in Europe, Asia and the United States, including theft of copyrighted material (piracy) and censorship. The US motion picture industry will serve as a case study of the response of multinational corporate owners of intellectual property to the challenges of new media, including an examination of contract provisions crafted by industry attorneys.

Professor Heller is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin (B.S., Education, J.D.). She served as assistant counsel to the U.S. House of Representatives Subcommittee on Criminal Justice and counsel to the full Senate Judiciary Committee. She then went on to serve as Assistant General Counsel at United International Pictures and Vice President and Special Counsel for Congressional Relations at the Motion Picture Association of America, Inc. She is a member of Women in Film and the British Academy of Film and Television Arts/Los Angeles.
