

Orientation Begins at 9 AM sharp on Monday morning.

- Please arrive on campus by 8:30 AM so that you will have time to sign-in and receive your Orientation packet.
- You can park in any lot marked “Commuter Parking”
- Remember to be in professional dress

Have you sent us the following?

- ✓ Two passport-sized photos
- ✓ An Official Transcript from your undergraduate degree-granting institution
- ✓ Immunization form - A copy of the immunization form is on Samford’s website:
<http://www.samford.edu/groups/stuaff/stuhealth/forms.html>

These items must be received by August 10. If your transcript and/or immunization form have not been received, you will be required to sign an affidavit requesting permission to attend classes.

Tuition is Due August 10!

There are only three days left to pay your tuition. Please note that if your tuition has not been paid by August 10, your class registration will be cancelled.

To view your account, log on to the Samford University Portal: portal.samford.edu

- Log in with your Samford User ID and password
- Click on Banner tab
- Select Student & Financial Aid
- Select Student Account

To access your schedule, select Registration, Student Detail Schedule and select Term. You may also pay your tuition and check grades through the portal. If you've misplaced your Samford User ID and password, please contact the Admissions Office at 800-888-7213.

Financial Aid Disbursement and Refund Checks

If you applied to receive financial aid, it was posted to your student account on July 31st. If you have questions about the status of your financial aid, contact a Wendy Roberts in the Samford University Financial Aid Office at 800-888-7245. Refund checks will be available on Monday, after the Orientation programming has concluded.

Student IDs and Parking Permits

Throughout Orientation week, you will have the opportunity to visit the Office of Campus Safety to have your student ID made and to obtain your parking permit. To get your parking permit, you’ll need to have your license plate number. Your student account will automatically be charged $20 for a permit.

Books

You have plenty of time to buy your books and either shop the used book sale sponsored by the Student Bar Association or visit the Samford Bookstore. For your convenience, the Used Book

Sale will be held on Sunday, August 16 from 12-4 PM and Monday, August 17 from 9 AM- 2 PM in the Great Room on the second floor of Robinson Hall. (Lockers can be purchased on those days, too.)

To access a list of books required for fall classes, visit the following web site on Cumberland's Current Students page http://cumberland.samford.edu/files/2009_fall_book_list.pdf. Reference your schedule to match your classes with the books required.

Undergraduate loan deferral/enrollment verification

If you need to defer your undergraduate loans or need enrollment verification for insurance purposes, the Law Student Records Office will be glad to help you with that after August 10.
