TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. LAW SCHOOLS SPONSORING THE CAMBRIDGE STUDY-ABROAD PROGRAM

(A) THE CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

The Chapman University School of Law is situated on the main university campus in Orange, California, some forty miles southeast of Los Angeles. The student body of approximately 550 is taught by a full-time faculty of more than 45, five of whom are former U.S. Supreme Court judicial clerks.

The Law School offers five curriculum phases: Advocacy & Dispute Resolution, Entertainment Law, Environmental & Land Use Law, International Law, and Taxation. Students may also opt for the joint JD/MBA or JD/MFA (Film & Television Producing) degree program. Clinical opportunities include the Elder Law Clinic, Family Violence Clinic, U.S. Tax Court Clinic, Ninth Circuit Appellate Advocacy Clinic, and Constitutional Jurisprudence Clinic.

(B) CUMBERLAND SCHOOL OF LAW AT SAMFORD UNIVERSITY

Cumberland School of Law at Samford University is one of the oldest law schools in the United States. Cumberland was founded in 1847 and moved to Birmingham, Alabama in 1961. The Law School has become nationally recognized for its Advocacy program, The Center for Biotechnology, Law and Ethics, and the use of technology in the classroom. The law faculty is composed of dedicated law teachers and scholars with rich experience gained from judicial clerkships, private practice, government service and corporate America. Cumberland is located in a thriving financial, legal and medical services center of Alabama. The Cumberland location offers students an opportunity to pursue a wide variety of academic, professional and social interests. Many students take advantage of the opportunity to broaden their perspectives through summer study-abroad program and interaction with international attorneys and jurists who study on Samford University's campus in the Master of Comparative Law program. Cumberland prides itself as a place "where good people become exceptional lawyers," with emphasis on practical training for the practice of law.

(C) SOUTH TEXAS COLLEGE OF LAW

South Texas College of Law rests comfortably in the center of one of the nation's largest legal markets. Located in downtown Houston's thriving, global market place, South Texas provides students a rigorous legal curriculum to prepare them for a wide variety of professional paths. Qualified, motivated students become capable, practice-ready attorneys with the support of an outstanding legal faculty focused on preparing students to seize opportunities. South Texas is the oldest law school in Houston, with a diverse student body of 1,200 students, 25% of whom attend classes part-time.

II. PROGRAM LOCATION OF THE STUDY-ABROAD PROGRAM

Cambridge has a 2000 year history. During the first century the Belgic tribes established the first settlement at the location now recognized as Cambridge. The Belgic settlement achieved strategic significance when the Romans arrived in AD 43. Roman soldiers were stationed at the location, a ford for crossing the River Cam, on the Roman Road connecting Colchester with Chester. Through the centuries the settlement grew from a village to a delightful town. A group of rebel scholars arrived in 1209, having left Oxford after that which applicable history asserts as “violent quarrels” with Oxford residents. The first college, Peterhouse, was established in 1284. Our study-abroad residential college, the Cambridge college of Oliver Cromwell, Sidney Sussex College, was founded in 1596. Sidney Sussex College was built on the site of a Franciscan friary. The contemporary location is in the center of the beautiful and historic city and is truly outstanding. There are 10 museums and galleries within walking distance of Sidney Sussex. Cambridge is truly an excellent location for a study-abroad program. We, the sponsoring law schools, are privileged to offer law students the opportunity to study in Cambridge, as have Milton, Marlowe, Coleridge, Wordsworth and Byron before them.

III. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Cumberland School of Law at Samford University, South Texas College of Law, and Chapman University School of Law will conduct the fourth annual study-abroad program at Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, England, June 28 – July 30, 2009. A reception for arriving students and faculty will occur on the evening of June 28, at 6:30 P.M. The reception will include an orientation for students and faculty concerning our residential college and the Cambridge area. Cumberland has conducted study-abroad programs in England since 1991, first at the University of Kent in Canterbury, then Collingwood College, University of Durham, England, moving the program to Cambridge in 2006. South Texas College of Law and Chapman University School of Law co-sponsored the Durham program with Cumberland for several years at that location. The Cambridge location enhances the study-abroad experience for participating students. Sidney Sussex College is a central location in Cambridge, convenient to many destinations of interest to students, including transportation by bus and train.

Classes will be conducted Monday through Thursday of the first week of the program for the one-hour course treating the English Legal System and the European Union. The examination for this course will be conducted on Friday morning, July 3, 2009. The normal class schedule, offering classes Monday through Friday, will vary during the second and third week of classes. During the second week of classes there will be no classes on Friday, July 10, to provide a three-day weekend for travel or study. The third week of classes is planned to accommodate a field trip to the Royal Courts of Justice, lunch at the Middle Temple Inn of Court and a trip to Parliament following lunch on July 15. The program will provide bus transportation to and from London for our visit.

The last day of classes will occur on July 27 and final examinations will be conducted on July 28 and July 29 for courses other than the one-hour course conducted during the first week of the program. Students, other than those who make individual arrangements with the program director, should plan to arrive at Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, on Sunday, June 28 and depart prior to 9:30 A.M. on Thursday, July 30. The program cannot furnish lodging either before June 28 or following our scheduled departure date. A closing dinner will be offered for students and faculty on Saturday evening, July 25. A summary calendar of events and class schedule will be found following the program application at the end of this brochure.

Students may anticipate examinations for each course comparable to law examinations administered in American Bar Association approved law schools in the United States. The professor responsible for each of the courses offered will both write and grade the applicable examination. The 2009 Cambridge program will be limited to a maximum of 30 students if additional lodging cannot be arranged. Early registration is encouraged.

IV. ADMISSION CRITERIA

Program participation is limited to law students in good standing at an American Bar Association approved law school, graduates of approved law schools in their country of origin or residence, or members of the Bar. Samford University, South Texas College of Law and Chapman University are Equal Opportunity Institutions and welcome applications for employment and educational programs from all individuals, regardless of race, color, sex, disability, national or ethnic origin.

V. APPLICATION PROCEDURES

All applications for admission must be accompanied by a $50 application fee which is non-refundable unless the application is rejected due to full enrollment, lack of sufficient student interest, or domestic and/or international instability which is relevant to the program. Deadline for submitting applications is April 1, 2009. Late applications may be arranged with the program director if space allows. The program director recognizes that financial aid for legal studies may not be available until either late May or early June; hence, a deferred time-frame for payment, other than the application deposit, is satisfactory if the student has preregistered and informed the program director of an acceptable payment schedule. Applications should be directed to Cumberland's Director of International Studies, Professor Michael D. Floyd, at the address provided on the application form. South Texas College of Law students should direct their applications for the Cambridge program to Assistant Dean Wanda Morrow at South Texas College of Law.

VI. ACADEMIC CREDIT

Upon satisfactory completion of the required course-work, the sponsoring law schools, fully accredited by the American Bar Association, will provide transcript information necessary to facilitate credit to students at their respective law schools, consistent with the policy of their respective schools. It is unlikely that summer study-abroad program will accelerate early graduation due to residency requirements established by the American Bar Association. Participants should, therefore, consult with their home law school to resolve this issue.

VII. CANCELLATION OR TERMINATION OF PROGRAMS AND CONSULAR INFORMATION SHEETS

Registered students who withdraw on or before May 1, 2009, will receive a refund of all monies prepaid other than the non-refundable application fee. Students withdrawing after May 1, 2009, and before June 27, will receive a fifty-percent refund of monies prepaid other than the application fee. Students withdrawing on or after the beginning of the program on June 28, will receive no refunds. In the event of cancellation of the program for lack of student interest or University concern regarding student safety, the University will utilize maximum effort to refund all monies prepaid, including the application fee, within twenty (20) days after the date of cancellation. The program director will use his best efforts to make arrangements for each student enrolled to attend a similar program, if the student so desires, if cancellation occurs after a deposit has been paid. Registered students will be advised of any such program cancellation by e-mail at their address on the application form and first class mail to their home address as indicated on their application for the program.

Notwithstanding any information concerning program cancellation and refund policy to the contrary, if the U.S. State Department determines that the country and area of the country in which the program will be conducted is an "area of instability" students will be permitted to withdraw from the program upon learning that the site has been declared to be such. Students withdrawing under such circumstances shall be refunded fees paid except for room and board payments utilized prior to the date the site was declared an "area of instability." The Consular Information Sheet for England, issued by the U.S. Department of State, will be furnished to all students upon registration. An updated Consular Information Sheet will be provided to all registered students if, either prior to the program beginning or subsequent thereto, the program location is determined to be an "area of instability."

If changes in the course offerings for which the student has registered or other significant aspects of the program occurs the registered student will be advised by e-mail and given an opportunity to obtain a full refund of all fees paid.

VIII. FINANCIAL MATTERS

(A) ADMINISTRATION, HOUSING AND MEALS - $3,900

Students will be housed in Sidney Sussex College. Breakfast and lunch are included in the housing and meal allowance for registered students each class day of the program. Breakfast or brunch, if such can be arranged with Sidney Sussex, will be provided each weekend. Lodging will be provided from June 28 and departure from Cambridge must occur prior to 9:30 A.M. on July 30. Evening meals may be purchased in one of the many local restaurants convenient to the lodging. The evening meal will not, other than the closing dinner on Saturday, July 25, be provided by the study-abroad program.

(B) TUITION (FIVE HOURS) - $3,500

This tuition cost is a flat rate of $3,500 for any hours undertaken. The maximum number of hours allowable pursuant to American Bar Association regulations for a program of this duration is five hours. The student will, therefore, be allowed to register for the one-hour course and two of the four two-hour courses offered. The payment schedule below is based upon the tuition plus the administration, housing and meal fees.

(C) PAYMENT SCHEDULE

$ 50.00	-	application fee, payable with application
$ 3,700.00	-	payable on or before April 15, 2009
$ 3,700.00	-	payable on or before May 15, 2009
$ 7,450.00	-	Total cost of Administration, Housing, Meals furnished and Tuition

Special arrangements for students participating in loan programs may be made by informing the program director of the date when the loan proceeds will be available after student registration is completed.

Loans are available for students participating in this study-abroad program. Students interested in obtaining loans for the program should contact the Director of Financial Aid at the law school they are attending. The approved budget for financial aid for this program for Samford University students, including all required travel and miscellaneous expense anticipated is $11,080. An itemized copy of the financial aid budget approved by Samford University Financial Aid is available on request from the Cumberland Director of International Studies at his address on the application form.

IX. PROGRAM LODGING AND ON-SITE ADMINISTRATION

This study-abroad program will be conducted at Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, England. Cambridge is located in beautiful central England, a convenient location from which to travel and an ideal location for summer study. The accommodations at Sidney Sussex are modern single en-suite bedrooms, i.e., a single bedroom with private bath, with linens and towels furnished. In-room internet connections are furnished. Classes will be held in a convenient classroom within the residential college. During the 2009 program Professor Michael D. Floyd will serve as the on-site director. The director will be available for student consultations each class day. The director will also maintain a cell phone for emergency student contact every day, including weekends.

X. PASSPORTS AND VISAS

Passports are required for a trip to England. Participating students should obtain their passports at their earliest convenience. Passports may be obtained through contact with the nearest State Department Office or United States Post Office. The UK is in the process of revising visa requirements for Summer Study Abroad programs such as this. The changes may impact travel plans and will require early action. The program director will provide each student traveling to England a letter explaining the nature of the requirements as they become available. It will be the responsibility of each participant to ensure compliance with the regulations once informed of the process and requirements.

XI. TRANSPORTATION

Each student participating in the program will be responsible for arranging their transportation to and from England. Airlines provide a variety of reduced fare plans and early booking can create substantial savings. Summer flights to Europe are filled quickly; hence early travel arrangements should be made. One will fly into either Heathrow Airport or Gatwick Airport for the flight from the United States to London. Refer to the following websites for information relating to the two airports and information concerning travel from the airports into London.

www.heathrowairport.com or www.heathrow.co.uk

www.gatwickairport.com or www.gatwick-airport-guide.co.uk

<http://www.gatwickexpress.co.uk>

Information concerning the London Subway System may be obtained from www.tfl.gov.uk/tube.

Cambridge is about 55 miles north of London. One can take the train to Cambridge from either London's Kings Cross Station or Liverpool Station. The train ride typically takes 45 minutes and costs around 15 pounds. Trains depart about every half hour. The websites for train information are:

www.nationalrail.co.uk

Students should obtain a BritRail pass from a travel agent in the U.S. before departing. The reduced rate BritRail pass will not be available in the U.K.

The Cambridge Train Station is south of the city center. The walk to the city center takes about 20 minutes. There are taxi stands at the train station and a bus leaves for the city center every 15 minutes or so. Our residential college, Sidney Sussex College, is delightfully located in the city center. Further information concerning Sidney Sussex College may be found at www.sid.cam.ac.uk.

Bus service to Cambridge is also available from London's Victoria Coach Station with busses departing every 15 minutes or so. The cost of a one way ticket is about 8 pounds. If you decide to take the bus from London to Cambridge, be sure to check the bus schedules carefully so your journey takes 2 rather than 4 hours. Look for the 2 hour schedule; this faster bus only departs at certain times of the day. Refer to the website www.nationalexpress.com for bus schedules. The Cambridge Bus Station is centrally located in Cambridge, close to Sidney Sussex College.

Stansted Airport (STN) is located 25 miles from Cambridge. This airport is great for travel throughout the UK and Ireland as well as Europe generally. Refer to the website www.stanstedairport.com for additional information about the airport and flights that are available. For information concerning the Stansted Express Train, see www.stanstedexpress.com.

Refer to the following websites for tourist and travel information about Cambridge.

XII. MATERIALS FOR COURSE OF STUDY

Information concerning casebook materials for courses offered will be available in sufficient time to allow some preparation by students prior to the summer semester. Individual students who wish to have course materials for early preparation should request the necessary information from the program director.

XIII. RESPONSIBILITY AND MODIFICATIONS

The sponsoring law schools will not be responsible for personal injury, medical expenses, or for loss or damage to personal property. Students must have medical insurance coverage which applies to foreign travel covering sickness and accidental injury, medical evacuation and repatriation. Proof of the requisite insurance must be submitted to the program director prior to May 31, 2009. If deemed desirable, students may also wish to purchase insurance covering loss or damage to personal property and trip cancellation. The sponsoring schools reserve the right to change any aspect of the program which circumstances make necessary or desirable. Participants will be notified promptly of material changes or cancellation of the program.

XIV. FACULTY AND COURSES TO BE OFFERED

THE ENGLISH LEGAL SYSTEM AND EUROPEAN UNION: A COMPARATIVE OVERVIEW (1 HR.) ADJUNCT PROFESSOR ADRIAN JENKALA

This course explores the English Legal System, the role of the judiciary, and the current interface of the English system with the European Union. The course offers students a unique opportunity to understand the practical and academic aspects of the emerging constitutional basis for the European Union and its effects on the English system of justice.

Professor Jenkala is a graduate of London University (B.S. and B. of Laws), University of Westminster (Diploma in Law), Inns of Court School of Law (Bar Finals) and a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. He has over twenty years experience as Barrister with advocacy rights in all of the courts of England and the European Court of Justice.

COMPARATIVE CONSTITUTIONAL LAW: ENGLAND AND THE UNITED STATES (2 HRS.) PROFESSOR BRANNON P. DENNING AND ADJUNCT PROFESSOR ADRIAN JENKALA

This course explores the constitutional cultures of England and the United States, with emphasis on the distinguishing characteristics of the constitutional framework in the two countries, judicial review, governmental structure and powers, as well as individual liberty recognition and protection. No prerequisite constitutional law course is required.

Professor Denning is a graduate of the University of the South (magna cum laude), and University of Tennessee School of Law (J.D. magna cum laude). He spent two years in the health law group at Baker, Donaldson, Bearman and Caldwell, P.C. in Memphis. In 1997 he moved to Yale Law School where he took a position as a research associate and Senior Fellow, earning an LL.M. From 1999-2003, he taught at the Southern Illinois University School of Law before joining the Cumberland faculty.

COMPARATIVE COUNTER-TERRORISM LAW (2 HRS.) ASSISTANT PROFESSOR SHARON FINEGAN, SOUTH TEXAS COLLEGE OF LAW

This course is designed to provide students with an understanding of legal mechanisms for dealing with terrorism and terrorists; and how government legal responses to terrorism impact human rights. The primary focus is on the response to terror in the United States, although consideration will be given to other national responses. This enables exploration of specific response modalities, such as the prosecution of terrorists, the use of military force to deal with terrorists, immigration controls, and intelligence collection targeting terrorists. In addition to the text, Gregory E. Maggs, Terrorism and the Law, Cases and Materials (Thompson West Publishing), several law review articles will serve as a basis for considering how terror response efforts impact human rights.

Professor Finegan is a graduate of the University of Virginia (B.A., History), American University Washington College of Law (J.D., summa cum laude; law review articles editor), and Columbia University School of Law (LL.M). She has clerked for a Federal District Judge in the Eastern District of Virginia and practiced law with Skadden, Arps in New York. Before joining the South Texas College of Law faculty in 2007, she was a Westerfield Fellow at Loyola University New Orleans College of Law.

RESOLVING DISPUTES ACROSS CULTURES (2 HRS.) PROFESSOR NANCY L. SCHULTZ, CHAPMAN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

Discussion of negotiation and mediation strategies and techniques, with emphasis on sensitivity to working with people from other cultures and backgrounds. Topics will include negotiation courtesies, expectations as to directness of communication, the importance of relationships, and ethical issues. Students will practice communication, negotiation, and mediation skills, and they will learn how negotiation and mediation relate to litigation and the legal context. Students will also have the opportunity to learn directly from professionals from other countries.

Professor Schultz is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin (B.A.), and the University of Pennsylvania (J.D.). After private practice at Ballard, Spahr, Andrews, & Ingersoll, and Schnader, Harrison, Segal, & Lewis in Philadelphia, she taught at Villanova University Law School and the George Washington University Law School before joining the faculty of Chapman University School of Law. She coaches inter-scholastic teams in mock trial, moot court, client counseling, mediation, negotiation, and arbitration, and serves on the International Negotiation Competition Executive Committee and the International Client Counseling Competition Committee.

COMPARATIVE CONSUMER PROTECTION LAW (2 HRS.) PROFESSOR MICHAEL D. FLOYD, CUMBERLAND SCHOOL OF LAW

This course explores various types of consumer protection legislation in the United States, and compares the U.S. approach to comparable laws in other countries, with an emphasis on the larger economies in the European Union. Topics include consumer credit issues, unfair and deceptive acts and practices, and other consumer contract issues.

Professor Floyd is a graduate of Princeton University (A.B., magna cum laude, economics), New York University (M.S., with distinction, accounting), Emory University School of Law (J.D., with distinction, Robert W. Woodruff Fellow, Order of the Coif). He served as a Judicial Clerk for Judge James C. Hill, United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, 1987-1988 before entering private practice with Sutherland, Asbill & Brennan, Atlanta, Ga., 1988-1991. He joined the Cumberland faculty in 1991. Professor Floyd is a Certified Public Accountant and former banking executive.
